The required texts for this course are Constitutional Law, Concise 14th ed. by Varat, Amar, and Cohen; 2015 Supplement to Constitutional Law

Please make sure you get the Concise 14th ed., not the regular 14th edition. They are very different books.

Assignment for the first week of Class: Tuesday, January 20, 2016 (a legislative Monday): Please read the Constitution carefully. Then read through page 43. The briefs for the cases must be written out. Book briefing will not be acceptable. If you write your briefs on a computer, you must have a hard copy available in class, not just a copy on your computer. This is required because I may collect the briefs.

Wednesday, January 21, 2016: In the text, please read through page 60. Then, please read pages 3-14 in the Supplement.
